

AMP Rising Dividend

CUSIP 001756105

First Quarter | 3.31.2022

FUND OBJECTIVE

The AMP Rising Dividend Fund seeks to capture yield in equity based investments and capital appreciation for investors with a long term time horizon. The Fund also seeks to have a lower standard deviation than the S&P 500 Index and higher dividends than the S&P 500 dividend average over a market cycle.

FUND STRATEGY

The AMP Rising Dividend Fund is comprised primarily of domestic and international stocks (American Depository Receipts) and Master Limited Partnerships. The Fund may also take some positions in mutual funds and exchange traded funds. Purchase considerations are based on dividend payment, fundamental/quantitative analysis and qualitative evaluation. Sell criteria are based on long term evaluation of; changes in the dividend, reduction in fundamentals, or significant sector changes. The proceeds may be invested in a higher ranked security or held in cash. The fund generally allocates 96 percent to securities but may reduce this amount based on the market cycle.

The strategy for the AMP Rising Dividend Fund is based on the AMP Rising Dividend strategy employed by AMP Wealth Management for a separately managed account program. The strategy investment performance shown is NOT the performance of the AMP Rising Dividend Fund but of the separate account strategy. While the strategies are similar, investment results may differ materially either up or down.

The AMP Rising Dividend Strategy performance has been calculated by an independent third party using time weighted return ("TWR"). Performance shown is net of fees and reflects the reinvestment of interest, income, and capital gains. The data is for the periods May 31, 2005 through December 31, 2021. The performance results are calculated net of transaction costs and the performance shown is for the periods ending September 30, 2021. Net returns are calculated using an annual management fee of 0.75%. Past performance is not indicative of future performance.
