Collective Investment Funds for Employee Benefit Plans

What are The Retirement Collective Investment Trust Funds?

The Funds are maintained by Alta Trust and are designed to serve the investment needs of tax-qualified employer sponsored retirement plans. The Funds are not mutual funds registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (“1940 Act”), as amended, or other applicable law, and unit holders are not entitled to the protections of the 1940 Act. The regulations applicable to a collective investment fund are different from those applicable to a mutual fund. The Funds’ units are not securities registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or applicable securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction. In addition, the Funds’ units are not publicly traded on any exchange or over-the-counter market and, as a result, the unit values are not available for publication in newspapers.

The unit values of each Fund will fluctuate and the value of each Fund will decrease or increase in accordance with market conditions. There is no guarantee that a Fund will achieve its investment objective. Units in the Funds are not deposits or obligations of, or endorsed or guaranteed by, Alta Trust or its affiliates, and the units are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other independent organization. The Funds are also subject to investment risks, including possible loss of the principal amount invested.

Fund Trustee

Alta Trust is a South Dakota state chartered trust company that provides retirement plan services to plan sponsors throughout the USA. In its capacity as Trustee, Alta Trust provides investment management, trust and custody services for the Funds.

Investment Manager

Creative Planning, LLC is the “Investment Manager” as that term is defined in Section 3(38) of Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”), as amended, with respect to the Trust and any Plan investing in the Funds. All of the assets of the Funds will be invested according to the corresponding strategy and investment guidelines described below.

Who May Want to Invest

The Funds may be an appropriate investment for investors seeking professional management of their retirement account assets.

About Risk

The Funds may invest in collective investment trusts (CITs) and stable value funds. The Funds are subject to market risk, meaning that the value of the investments in each Fund may decline over time, causing a reduction in the value of a Fund.

Principal Investment Risks: As with all investment strategies, there is the risk that you could lose money through your investment in the Funds. Many factors affect a Fund's net asset value and performance. The following risks may apply to an investment in a Fund.

Management and Strategy Risk: The value of your investment depends on the judgment of the Funds' Investment Manager about the quality, relative yield, value or market trends affecting a particular security, industry, sector or region, which may prove to be incorrect. Investment strategies employed by the Funds' advisor in selecting investments for each Fund may not result in an increase in the value of your investment or in overall performance equal to other investments.

Objective Risk: There is no guarantee that a Fund will reach its stated objective.

Investment Style Risk: There is the chance that returns from micro to large-capitalization stocks will trail returns from the overall stock market.

Limited History of Operations: The Retirement Collective Investment Trust and its associated Funds are a new offering and there is a limited history of operations for investors to evaluate.

Expense Risk: Prior to making an investment in a Fund, investors should carefully consider the expenses and how those expenses may reduce overall investment performance.

Market Risk: The market price of a security or instrument may decline, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably, due to general market conditions that are not specifically related to a particular company, such as real or perceived adverse economic or political conditions, throughout the world, changes in the general outlook for corporate earnings, changes in interest or currency rates or adverse investor sentiment generally. The market value of a security or instrument also may decline because of factors that affect a particular industry or industries, such as labor shortages or increased production costs and competitive conditions within an industry.

Other Risks: This list of risks is not comprehensive and the Funds may be subject to other risks not specified in this Investor Disclosure.
