COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT FUNDS FOR EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

What are the Martin & Company Collective Investment Funds?

The Martin & Company Funds (each a "Fund," and together the "Funds") are collective investment funds maintained by Alta Trust that are designed to serve the investment needs of tax-qualified employer sponsored retirement plans. The Funds are not mutual funds registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, ("1940 Act") or other applicable law, and unit holders are not entitled to the protections of the 1940 Act. The regulations applicable to a collective investment fund are different from those applicable to a mutual fund. The Fund's units are not securities registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended or applicable securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction. In addition, the Fund's units are not publicly traded on any exchange or over-the-counter market and, as a result, the unit values are not available for publication in newspapers.

The unit values of the Funds will fluctuate and the value of the Funds will decrease or increase in accordance with market conditions. There is no guarantee that any Fund will achieve its investment objective. Units in the Funds are not deposits or obligations of, or endorsed or guaranteed by, Alta Trust or its affiliates and the units are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other independent organization. The Funds are also subject to investment risks, including possible loss of the principal amount invested.

Fund Trustee

Alta Trust is a South Dakota state chartered trust company that provides retirement plan services to plan sponsors throughout the USA. In its capacity as Trustee, Alta Trust provides investment management, trust and custody services for the Funds. Alta Trust does not provide investment advice or advisory services to employers, retirement plan participants or accountholders.

Investment Manager

Martin & Company Investment Counsel is the "Investment Manager" as that term is defined in Section 3(38) of Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), as amended, with respect to the Trust and any Plan investing in any Fund. All of the assets of the Funds will be invested according to corresponding strategies and investment models developed and provided by the Investment Manager.

Who May Want to Invest

The Funds may be an appropriate investment for investors seeking professional management of their retirement account assets.

About Risk

The Fund invests in U.S. listed equities. The Funds are subject to market risk, which is the chance that the value of the investments in the Funds may decline over time, causing a reduction in the value of the Funds.

Principal Investment Risks: As with all investment strategies, there is the risk that you could lose money through your investment in the Fund. Many factors affect a Fund's net asset value and performance. The following risks may apply to the Fund's investments.

Stock markets tend to move in cycles, with periods of rising stock prices and periods of falling stock prices.

Management Risk: The Investment Manager's dependence on its process and judgments about the attractiveness, value and potential appreciation of particular stocks in which the Funds invest or writes may prove to be incorrect and may not produce the desired results.

Market Risk: Overall securities market risks will affect the value of individual instruments in which the Fund invests. Factors such as economic growth and market conditions, interest rate levels, and political events affect the US securities markets. When the value of a Fund's investments goes down, your investment in the Fund decreases in value and you could lose money.

Limited History of Operations: The Martin & Company Collective Investment Trust and its associated Funds are a new offering and there is limited history of operations for investors to evaluate.

Investment Style Risk: The chance that returns from small-capitalization stocks will trail returns from the overall stock market. Historically, small-cap stocks have been more volatile in price than the large-cap stocks that dominate the overall market, and they often perform quite differently. Small companies tend to have greater stock volatility because, among other things, these companies are more sensitive to changing economic conditions.

Overall Fund Objective

The Fund seeks a competitive return for its investment style consistent with the stated risk/return profile of the particular Fund. The Fund is a collective investment fund that will, under normal circumstances, invest in small company U.S. stocks and money market vehicles that collectively seek to achieve the stated investment objectives and investment allocation strategies of the Funds. There is no guarantee that a Fund will meet its stated objective.

Benchmark: The Fund benchmark is the Russell 2000.
